

SPROUTS Children's Theatre

SPROUTS is a company of professional artists performing for children. The collection of musicals were adapted from classic fairy tales or developed as original material by Artistic Director, Stan Gill. With the children sitting only five feet away from the action, there are hilarious lyrics, beautiful ballads, magical effects, uproarious chase-scenes, tons of audience participation and lots of happy endings that children of all ages will enjoy. At Creative Spark at 10 AM on Sept 23rd, Oct 28th and Dec 9th. $10 per child.

Resident Artists Fall 2010- Spring 2011

Creative Drama with Stan Gill

Lead by Stan Gill, SPROUTS Childrens Theatre's Artistic Director, students will work on an age appropriate performance selected especially for their grade level with an emphasis on literacy. Every student will get an opportunity to perform. The class will culminate with performance on the final day. Grades 2 through high school for $1900 for one week residencies.

Gina Bean Puppet Making

Students will design, problem solve and create their own original characters and theatrical performances. Students will also learn about puppet styles from many cultures. Grades 2 through high school. $1400 including supplies available for one week residencies.
